Rein Jan. 19 Dictated.
Dear Sir:-

We have in process of publication a series of thirty illustrations of Shakspearean plays drawn by Mr. F. O. O. Darley, the great American artist.

This work is the most ambitious and largest attempt ever undertaken by an American artist to portray the striking scenes and situations in the best known plays of the great Poet.

It has received the examination and approval of the large number of our famous painters, greatest actors and foremost connoisseurs of art.

Before bringing it to the attention of the public in Washington we are exceedingly desirous of submitting it for your personal examination and criticism, it having been our custom to pursue this course, and present it first for examination to acknowledged judges and patrons of art in each Metropolis.

We beg to enclose a description of the illustrations and respectfully ask an appointment at your convenience, for our agent, Mr. C. D. Alderson, whom we have instructed to call upon you, and submit the work for your inspection. $100. for 33. Illustrations

Very respectfully,

Mr James C. Delling;

Dear Sir:

Yours of the of the award of the "Coccoran been received. It is with more pleasure and gratifi-

ment of the committee,
my work is deserving of it.
I fully appreciate the honor osity in opening the gallery to students, I have

Ref <sup>Boston</sup> Board New York Feb 2 / 86.
Dear Dr McLeod 3729

Recd Feb 4. A friend of mine has a large picture by T. Gudin representing the Independence the first double decker built by the United States in the war of 1812.
She is represented firing a gun to bring another ship to and a boat crew going off to take possession.

I consider it and the artist generally do the best Marine picture in this country.

With the frame it measures about ten feet long by Six feet high.

This is a fine gallery
picture, and would be a good subject for the Cocoran Art Gallery.

You may have seen it in my studio.
As I had it here for a while. The party wants twenty thousand dollars for it. I think he would buy it however

It can be sent on if wanted to look at.
Who buys pictures for the gallery now?

Give my kind regards to Mrs Cocoran. When I angled to learn
is still strong and well.

Sincerely yours

Albert Zwiast
